In Memory of MARY DUJARDIN, wife of PIERRE MALLIEN,
born at St. Denis, Belgium, June 19, 1860, and fortified with the last Sacraments, died at Brussels, Wisconsin, Nov. 26, 1929.

I had wretched months and sorrowful nights; I have suffered anxiety and pain but I prayed the Lord and upon Thee I have placed my trust and hope; for the portals of Heaven stand ajar for those who love Thee.

Dear husband and children, I have been taken from your sight but we are still joined in heart. I will cherish the sweet remembrance of your love and devotion towards me.

St. Augustine.

Dear children, fear the Lord, love each other and do not forget the lessons of your parents, live together in peace and the God of goodness shall not forsake you forever

We have loved her in life, let us not abandon her in death until we have conducted her into the house of the Lord by our prayers.

Sweet Hearts of Jesus and Mary, be my refuge. (300 days indulgence.)

Our Father. Hail Mary.

For the heart broken
with sorrow,
there is one thought which can dry its tears, the sweet
thought of heaven.

(St Augustine)
